Tax in plate tariff has put nothing but a tax in dad's dinner pail.

The logic which Judge CLAIBORNE used in his decision on the pool-room case was of the patent reversible kind.

JUDGE CLAIBORNE has merely succeeded in deferring the wiping out of that den of iniquity known as Pool alley.

The contest between the Mayor and the Council combines in unfortunate, but not more so than the filling up of the municipal offices with ward politicians would be.

Mr. QUAY will probably tender his resignation as Chairman of the National Republican Executive Committee if he is convinced that the committee will not accept it.

The proceedings of the convention of Republican editors in Illinois yesterday indicated that while some of Mr. BLAINE's internal organs may be deranged his grip on the party organs is unimpaired.

Whether Editor ELLIOTT of Columbus received his jet discharges or not in a life sentence to the penitentiary for the killing of Editor OSBORN, the verdict serves as a wholesome discourager of personal and pistol journalism.

ALTHOUGH Judge BURNES has overruled the motion for a new trial in the Noland case there is undoubtedly reason for granting it on the ground that the embarrassing ex-Treasurer did not get justice.

His term in the Penitentiary should have been at least ten times as long as that fixed upon by the jury.

SOME hope of having light thrown on the inside of the Philadelphia scandal is given by the persistent refusal of Bank Examiner DREW to act as a scape-goat for all the sins of the Federal officials involved in them.

His resolution to make a fight even if the whole truth must come out should be carefully nursed.

THE gamblers of Pool alley are again raking in their winnings from the clerks and shop boys through the grace of Judge CLAIBORNE. They had better make hay while the sun shines, because a storm is gathering which will demolish every pool room in the city. The delay will merely increase the violence of the hurricane.

PERHAPS the offer of a good franchise, on reasonable terms, for a street railway to the cemeteries and the extreme north end of the city to any man or corporation upon the condition that the fare be limited to 5 cents would effect the desired object as quickly as yielding to the demands of the owners of the Baden railway. This is a business-like method of treating the matter which the Municipal Assembly should try.

THE lack of enthusiasm over the proposed alliance of France and Russia which is reported from Europe is entirely natural. There can be no cordial sympathy between the despotic government of the Czar and the republican government of France, and the wedding together of these two nations is merely a union forced by political exigencies. They are linked only by common enemies, greed of power and desire for revenge. It is not a holy alliance.

In the new Union Depot plans which have just been submitted to the Board of Public Improvements, besides the superb main building, to cost half a million, the vast train sheds and other necessities, there is provision for a glass roof, granite walks between the tracks and a $10,000 baggage department. A lively evangelist would find it an easy matter to convince St. Louisans that the millennium is near at hand when the feathers are beginning to show on JAY GOULD's shoulder-blades.

WHO "FIRED THE CASE?"

"I want to work and fix the case so that it could not come before the Supreme Court," says the Mayor's Reviser of Ordinances to a morning newspaper reporter, in the course of a boasting declaration that he and Judge CLAIBORNE had, between them, nullified a Missouri statute and made Pool Alley practically law-proof and able to defy and laugh at the police power of the State.

Why did he go to work and fix the case that way, unless he had reason to believe that the forthcoming decision would be one which the Supreme Court would certainly reverse if appealed? His statement is equivalent to a confession that the Pool Alley decision is clearly against law, and that it will not obstruct the closing of Pool Alley a moment longer than is required to get the question before the Supreme Court.

In casting this severe reflection upon the decision he obtained in behalf of the "gamblers' den," he does not tell us how he came to anticipate the rendering by Judge CLAIBORNE of a decision which could only protect the gamblers from the police while the Supreme Court can be kept out of the case. Upon what information or theory in regard to Judge CLAIBORNE's supposed leanings, was it assumed that he would help Pool Alley's attorney to manacle a valid statute so that the Supreme Court cannot unchain it nor the police enforce it?

The occupant of a lucrative office, created by the statutes of Missouri, a sworn officer of the law, fixing a case so as to defeat the law, and taking advantage of some Judge's known or supposed weakness, was it assumed that he would help Pool Alley's attorney to manacle a valid statute so that the Supreme Court cannot unchain it nor the police enforce it?

term will be labor in vain. His very plain intimation that he expected to go before the people on the issue between him and the Council may be set down as an expression dropped from mere force of habit, by a perpetual candidate, unable to think of a future election without him in it. But long habit has rendered the public also unable to think of the Mayor in any other light than as a perennial candidate, an Oliver Twist, always asking for more.

It is reported that a movement is in progress to attack the convict leasing system of Tennessee through the courts on the ground that the law establishing it is unconstitutional. A decision against the law would be a final settlement of the vexed question. But the law should be repealed by the Legislature as soon as it convenes.

Why did he go to work and fix the case that way, unless he had reason to believe that the forthcoming decision would be one which the Supreme Court would certainly reverse if appealed? THREE MEN KILLED.

Collapse of a Pudding Mill in Course of Erection.

Forty people buried under the debris of the building.

Prompt Rescue of the Unfortunate Workmen—A Wild Panic—Narrow Escape of Cable Car Passengers—A Cowardly Herd—Serious Runaway Accident—The Middletown Wreck—Casualties.

PITTSBURG, July 29.—The new pudding mill of the Pittsburgh Oil Well Supply Co. at Franktown, this city, collapsed about 9:30 o'clock this morning, killing three men and seriously wounding three others. The names of those killed are:

MICHAEL MANNING.
B. COOKIN.
GEORGE LEMOS.

THE INJURED.
J. PARKER.
JOSEPH BAKER.
F. SMITH.

A number of others were slightly hurt. The building, which was in course of construction, was 125 feet long by 105 feet wide, and constructed of brick and iron. At the time of the accident forty-two men were at work on the structure and twenty-five others were working in the immediate vicinity. The men were engaged in hoisting an immense iron truss, when it toppled over and striking an iron beam knocked the iron girders out.

The immense structure at once fell with an awful crash burying nearly all the men in the ruins. The work of rescue was immediately begun, and the men extricated in a short time. It was then found that but one had been killed outright, and two others fatally injured. The latter died while being removed to a hospital. The injured are all doing well. The plant was formerly owned by the Elba Iron & Bolt Co., but was recently purchased by the Pittsburgh Oil Well Supply Co. The loss will be quite heavy.

THE ST. LOUIS DISASTER.
FEDERAL OFFICIALS OF THE LATE ST. LOUIS.

PARIS, July 29.—Immense crowds of people, estimated at 20,000, gathered this afternoon for the funeral of the late St. Louis. The victims of the terrible railroad disaster of Sunday last. The crowds assembled in front of the cathedral, where the body of the deceased, being estimated in round numbers at 20,000. Several women called out to the crowd, and one woman, who was affected in the guise of children, but David died instantly and without ever having been extricated from the wreckage.

One of the victims of the disaster was a young man, who was killed by the falling of a beam. He was a student at the University of St. Louis, and was a member of the St. Louis Athletic Club. He was a very popular young man, and his death was a great loss to the community.

Another victim of the disaster was a woman, who was killed by the falling of a beam. She was a mother of three children, and her death was a great loss to her family. Her children were all killed as well.

The disaster was a terrible one, and the loss of life was a great one. The cause of the disaster was the falling of a beam, which was a result of the poor construction of the building.

ADOPTED THE REPORT.

The Council discusses the Special Committee's Work—Other Matters.
All the members of the Council were present at last night's meeting excepting Mr.
Meier. Most of the time of the meeting was spent in discussing a batch of public drinking fountain bills and in claiming bills in which William Hartley, a bricklayer, seeks to recover $500 which he claims the city owes him for brickwork at the House of Refuge. The bill was considered and was passed. Some of the drinking fountain bills were passed and others laid over.

The special committee appointed to investigate the reports affecting the management of the insane asylum made a report. The effect that Dr. Hermann, the acting superintendent, was efficiently discharging his duties. Mr. Cole stated that Dr. Hermann had had years of experience at the asylum, and was as well qualified to manage it as any physician. The same committee will consider its investigation of the various departments.

A Barber's Daughter Ruined.

William Labadie, who keeps a barber shop at 1119 North Tenth street, swore out a warrant against Sarah Owens, who keeps a bawdy house near Sixth and Spruce streets.
Labadie says that about June 3 last, his daughter, Kitty, went out with a man who was as domestic and that she did not return. A few days ago her father found out from a boy in the neighborhood where his daughter was met by the Owens woman, who took her home and gave her employment in the kitchen. The girl awoke the next morning she found all her clothes gone, and she was left with only a few stockings, red slippers and a loose red house wrapper. When she learned the meaning of it all she fled, but was finally coaxed into living like the rest of them. Labadie says he will pursue Owens woman if it takes every cent he has in the world.

An Illinois Woman Deserted.

A pitiful case of desertion was brought to the notice of the police last night. Mrs. Minnie Hamilton, aged 27, arrived here yesterday from Quincy, Ill. Ten months ago she married George Hamilton, the son of a well-known shoemaker from Quincy. She was sick. He took his wife and went to live with his parents in Quincy. Mrs. Hamilton did not get along well with her father-in-law. He brought her to St. Louis last Wednesday and she would get work here. He left her with a colored woman, Mrs. Burton, at North Broadway. The next day she received a note from him. He told her to come back. She at once went back to Quincy but found he was not there. Her father-in-law refused to give her the household furniture as he had advanced her $500 in it. He gave her $10, however, on which she came to town last night.

Stole a Basket of Clothing.

Charlie Burnett and another negro were walking down Franklin avenue yesterday afternoon, Burnett carrying a large basket on his right arm. Detectives Badger and Flynn came down the street, whereupon Burnett's companion started running. Burnett was arrested and taken to the Third District station. Two suits and a hat were found in the basket. In his pockets he had a pair of opera glasses and a meerschaum pipe. Burnett claimed an open door way and saw the goods all packed up ready to be away. He took them, but claims it was his first offense.

Charged With Embezzlement.

Charles Assman, the manager of Mulford's Ticket Agency at 419 Walnut street, has been missing for a month and a half. Assman was addicted to drinking and gambling and after his disappearance the firm immediately went through his books and found him to be short between $500 and $600 short. The firm yesterday swore out a warrant charging him with embezzlement and at the same time offered a reward of $50 for his arrest. They claim they have located him in the Northwest and will have him back within ten days.

Don Against Father.

Pat Kinealy had a difficulty about a week last evening with his son John and a young man named Walter Niedmanner. The cause of the trouble was young Kinealy's father forbidding him to associate with Niedmanner.
The two boys assailed the old man with brickbats, knives and revolvers. Kinealy followed Niedmanner and gave him a good drubbing. Officers Fox and Lyons found and placed him under arrest.

Sam Jones in Another Garrel.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., July 28.—Sam Jones drew such small audiences here that he left the place Saturday without fulfilling his engagement. Sunday Sam attacked the management of a hotel here because it sold liquor and had a billiard hall, and he and the owner of the place had a bitter quarrel on the street just before he left.

PEACE AGREEMENT.

President Von der Ahe Discusses the Base Ball Situation.

THE ASSOCIATION'S POSITION IN A COM-PROMISE OUTLINED.

It Will Resign Contracts, but Wants No
More National Agreements.—George Dixon's Easy Defeat of Abe Willis—Boston Scores Another Base Ball Victory—Sporting News in General.

President Von der Ahe and the St. Louis Browns returned home this morning after an absence in the East and West since July 2.
Capt. Omskey left the club at Columbus to pay a $1,500 visit to A. S. Spaulding in Chicago.
He will return Friday to get ready for the August campaign opening Saturday with Boston at Sportsman's Park. Mr. Von der Ahe was seen at the park this morning by a Post-Dispatch reporter.

"We are glad to get home," said the boss President, "as we have been away nearly a month. The trip has been a successful one considering the condition of both the team and the weather. We lost the best day in the year at Baltimore, Saturday, by heavy rain, and in Washington, where we always draw well, we were knocked out by the bad weather. Otherwise, our trip was thoroughly successful. It is not often that a team will win eleven out of seventeen games away from home. Had our men all been in shape we would have lost but three games.
Boyle, Lyons and Rogers were away from us at different times and it broke up the team work. Now that we are on our own ground I think we will be able to hold our own against Boston. The latter is a few games in the lead, but I don't think they will leave St. Louis until we have beaten them. In the Browns will yet show Boston they are in the race to the finish, and I propose to make the pitching department as strong as it is possible to get."

"You signed pitcher Easton?"

"Yes, he was released by Columbus, against the wishes of their people, and the Browns tried hard to sign him, but he preferred St. Louis.
When in shape he is a valuable man, and he says his arm is all right. He will be given ample opportunity to show it. Duryea was speedy enough, but he had practically no command of his ball, and of course, not being able to fill the bill he was released."

"What is there in the stories of the Cincinnati Association club going to Indianapolis?"

"The frequent repetition of the alleged removal of the Cincinnati Association club to Indianapolis has actually led the League writers to believe the lie, for such it is. As a
